Jules as an intern had to:

- Manually input at least 70 micro-influencers in a day across different categories (fashion, beauty, sports, etc.)
- Used a Google Sheet to input links of all social media links, followers, and emails
- Finding & filtering influencers took 2 interns 2 work days to do

Business Interviews

Validation Insights & Problems 🔍

Difficulty finding smaller-scale influencers (nano and micro-influencers)

Prefer to hire smaller influencers to create the most organic engagement

Resort back to manual means of finding influencers due to gaps in other platforms

TARGET MARKET:

Talay

A medium-enterprise using influencer marketing as one of its main tactics but doesn't have a big budget

Talay’s (painful) to-do-list ✍️

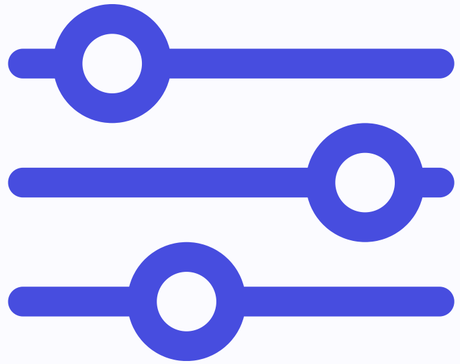

aka Pain Points :(

"it takes so long to look for influencers MANUALLY"

"it's so tedious to place ALL details in a sheet"

"It's so hard to find the RIGHT VIBE"

What is Collab Connect

- Provides a fast and easy-to-read list of micro and nano-influencers
- Relevant and up-to-date data

for your influencer hunt

ROADMAP

Phase 1

Validate the idea by testing demand & pricing, offering the database as a service

Phase 2

Enhance scalability and reliability (transition period)

Phase 3

Officially introduce the service to a wider audience through a dedicated website

1.
   Customer gives us their requirements for their ideal influencers

2.
   CoCo Team checks the database for influencers that fit client asks

3.
   CoCo Team runs the influencer's name through our program to get updated data

4.
   Consolidate influencer list into an easy to digest Google Sheet

Send list to customer and ask for feedback through a feedback form
